MERTON TOLD TERMS OF HIS KING DEALING

Says Former Alien Property Custodian Gave Him Checks

New York, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Richard Merton, German metal magnate, testified today that it was he who suggested paying the late John T. King "something" for his aid in obtaining the return to allegedly German owners of $7,000,000 realized from the sale of American Metals Company stock during the war.

Merton is the government's star witness in the trial of H. M. Daugherty, former Attorney General, and Thomas W. Miller, former Alien Property Custodian, for conspiracy to defraud the United States in the transfer of the $7,000,000. John T. King, who died soon after the first indictment in the case was returned, is alleged by the government to have "pulled the strings" in the deal.

Merton said that under the terms of an agreement he finally reached with King in July 1921 he agreed to pay the latter five percent of the amount of assets recovered providing the transaction was completed before August 15, 1921. If the transaction was not completed before Sept. 15, Merton said, he was to pay King 2 1/2 percent of the amount recovered. In addition, he testified, he agreed to pay King $50,000 in cash, and shortly thereafter gave King a check for that amount drawn on the Chase National Bank.

Merton said he had not seen the cancelled check but he knew it had been cashed.

Merton said he obtained the services of King because he thought it would be less expensive than hiring a lawyer. King was once republican national committeeman from Connecticut and one of the most influential men in the republican party.

Miller Gave Him Checks
Telling of the actual transfer of the $7,000,000, Merton testified that at a champagne dinner in a private room at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in this city, Miller handed him two checks totaling about $7,000,000. He could not fix the date of the dinner. The government alleged it took place on September 20, 1921.

King, the late Jess W. Smith and Miller attended the champagne dinner Merton testified. He gave each of his three guests a gold cigarette case as souvenirs, the witness said. Two bottles of champagne were consumed and the checks were cashed.

Merton said Miller had come from Washington to personally deliver the checks because he (Merton) had made it clear he was in a hurry to return to Germany.

Asked to explain the disappearance of the $50,000 check which he said he gave to King, the witness said he had a custom at that time of returning cancelled checks to the men in whose favor they were drawn.

United States District Attorney Buckner, asked Merton to tell what happened at the champagne dinner.

"Well," he said, "Mr. King came about 7 o'clock that night and brought two bottles of champagne. A little later Mr. Miller and Mr. Smith came together. Mr. Miller gave me two checks. Together they came to about $7,000,000 in round numbers. They were made out to the Swiss Bank. I thanked Mr. Miller. He had been very kind to me, and I put the checks and the receipts in my pocket and we sat down to dinner."

Memory Faulty
When shown the checks which revealed they had been made payable to the Societe Suisse Pour Valeurs de Metaux, Merton admitted that his memory had been faulty on that point.

"I told Mr. King that I would not

FATHER OF TWO CHILDREN NABBED IN ROCHELLE AS HE TRIES TO ROB SAFE

Trying to Get Money to Buy Concession Lot at Oregon Fair

Rochelle, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Trapped while he was attempting to rifle the safe in the Sheriff's garage here late Wednesday, Chester Hart, 23 year old father of two children, Thursday was bound over to the Ogle county grand jury.

Hart's wife and two children, who were found waiting in front of the garage in a small "house car" mounted on a Ford truck, were taken to the county farm where they were provided with food and shelter, while Hart, in default of bond, was removed to the county jail at Oregon.

"Broken," Prisoner Says
Questioned by State's Attorney Martin V. Peterson in Justice George O'Brien's court, Hart said he had just returned with his family from Warren where he had operated a concession at the fair. "I had just 50 cents left, and I was desperate," he explained. "Then I saw an opportunity to secure sufficient money to buy mid-way space at the Ogle county fair—and I was caught at it."

Caught Riffing Safe
Leaving his wife, his six-year-old son and his four-year-old daughter in the machine outside, Hart entered the garage and ordered a small part from Fred Ruch, an employee.

Ruch returned unexpectedly from the mechanical department and found Hart kneeling in front of the open safe.

Hart leaped to his feet and dashed from the building, but was overtaken by Ruch, who turned his prisoner over to Chief Ambrose Hodges.

OGLE CO. FARMER NEAR DEATH AS RESULT ACCIDENT

William Sutton of Byron Run Over by Rockford Car

The condition of William Sutton, farmer residing between Byron and Oregon, whose left leg was amputated after amputation had set in, was reported unchanged today. Blood poisoning has spread through his system and little hope is held for his recovery.

Sutton was injured Monday when he attempted to cross the highway in front of his home near Byron, stepping directly in the path of an automobile driven by Thomas Burchfield of Loves Park, Rockford. He was knocked to the pavement and the rear wheel passed over his leg, giving it a compound fracture.

Burchfield stopped and picked up the injured man, taking him to an office of a Byron physician who stopped the flow of blood from the gash in his leg which was caused when one of the bones of his leg pierced through the flesh. He was then taken to the Rockford hospital. He suffered a relapse Wednesday.

Examination disclosed that gangrene poisoning had set in and an emergency operation was performed.

COUPLE ADMITTED BEING NEAR SPOT OF HALL MURDER

Partial Corroboration of "Pig Woman's" Testimony Obtained

Somerville, N. J., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Ralph V. Gorsline and Miss Katherine Rastall, both of New Brunswick, have admitted they were within 300 yards of the spot at which the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills were killed four years ago.

Their information was from George Brown of Chicago, held with Oliver Berg of Chicago and Harry Linard of Butte, Mont., under total bonds of $900,000 at Champaign, Ill., where the bandits left the train and fled across country.

Brown said he knew nothing of the plans in advance but that when the trio boarded the New Orleans Limited here they were in a compartment next to that of the three gunmen. Linard then detailed their moves.

King of Jewel Thieves
Chicago police declared that Berg belongs to an underworld organization keeping track of jewelers' movements. Three millions in gem robberies here is charged to such a unit.

The bandits were arraigned and bound to the grand jury in Champaign last night, after being captured by a posse of farmers and sheriffs who found the trio in a hay mow near Loda, Ill., twelve hours after the robbery. They were forced to flee afoot when an overheated motor halted their hired automobile in Loda.

The stolen gems were recovered from their cache under the scales of a Chicago stockyard where they had hid in mud and water during the night and checked at Champaign last night by the salesman, Joseph Riskin of New York and William Davidson and Morris Minsky of San Francisco.

It was then that they heard the shots and the woman's scream. Miss Rastall and he discussed what they had heard after the body had been found and agreed to say nothing.

Gorsline was a vestryman in the Episcopal church of St. John, the minister, of which Dr. Hall was rector.

In a first statement Gorsline told placed the time he and Miss Rastall reached the line as about 10:35 p. m. He parked his car and might have put out the lights, he said.

Miss Rastall in her statement said she had kept silent four years ago because she knew Mr. Gorsline was married. "We didn't want to get mixed up in it," she added.

Joliet Man is Arrested After Six Years Search
Chicago, Sept. 10.—(AP)—After a six year search federal agents today arrested Samuel Prager, said to be a former clothing merchant of Joliet on charges of violation of the federal narcotic act. Prager, who is 40, was called by federal officials a "higher up" in a wide narcotic ring.

The trouble had its origin in the refusal of the republican guards to disband. The guards are supporters of General Pangalos who recently was ousted from the dictatorship. They numbered about 1,000 officers and men.

The report that Berg, one of the robbers has been recognized as a man sent by bootleggers a year ago to attempt to kill Gray was verified by Sheriff Gray at 11 o'clock. He says that I. E. Jones, former Urbana police chief, identified Berg as the man, but that he himself has never been seen Berg.

SEEK SOURCE OF INFORMATION OF JEWEL MOVEMENTS

One of Trio of Bandits Confesses Robbery on I. C. Train

Chicago, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Armed with the confession of one of the trio, detectives here groped today for details of a national information service which enabled three bandits to intercept nearly $500,000 in diamonds Wednesday night by holding up three salesmen on an Illinois-Central train.

SLOT MACHINES OBJECTIVE OF THIEF IN CITY

Three Machines Stolen Recently: Loot is Unknown

A new kind of thief has been discovered in the vicinity of Dixon, one that from all reports has been quite active and fairly successful in his operations at night. Slot machines in which nickels and quarters are played are the objective of the thief. The locations of these machines apparently have been carefully traced, as nothing other than the machines have been molested.

Three places in which these machines have been operated, have suffered through the operations of the thief or thieves this far this week. It is known, and as many more may have been entered. In two instances the machines were taken away, opened and the contents, nickels and quarters removed, and the machines left under a culvert. In one instance, about $7 was realized from a single machine and in a second, the operator had emptied the cash before closing his place of business and the thieves experienced a "water haul."

The third machine reported stolen, had not been recovered at noon today and the amount it contained was not known.

The fear today was of swollen streams.

At Terre Haute, Ind., conditions were the most serious since the disastrous flood of 1913. The 7.35 inches of rain at Mattoon, Ill., was the heaviest fall since 1907 and Jacksonville, Illinois recorded eight inches of rain for the first flood in its experience.

Tourists Marooned
Throughout central Illinois hundreds of automobile tourists were marooned, cut off by submerged highways, weakened or washed out bridges. Railroad service was impaired.

Near Terre Haute 25 coal mines were among idle industrial units and many houses there and elsewhere were partly under water.

One freak of the storm was the washing away of ground at the foot of a spillway at Lake Brachen near Galesburg, disclosing a five foot vein of coal clay.

Farmers abandoned hope for small grain standing in some sections and, taking note of coolness accompanying the rains, were fearful for corn, under threat of frost before maturity.

Three of the four deaths in Illinois were from electrocution. The other and those of a Missouri farmer and his two small children were drownings.

ROADS UNDER WATER
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 10.—(AP)—With all but two routes open today and prospects of clear weather, tourists held here for two days are returning to the highways. Route 4 north and 24 to Taylorville are impassable and water is flowing over the St. Louis road in several places but cars are going through.

The best road to Chicago is through Decatur and Champaign.

The loss in Springfield, due to flooded basements, largely, is estimated at from one million to a million and a half dollars. The Sangamon river has reached its greatest height and is slowly receding.

Chicago Musicians' Strike is Settled
Chicago, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Music today came back to Chicago's 400 moving picture and vaudeville theaters.

Three thousand musicians who have been on strike since Sunday night returned to the orchestra pits following an early morning settlement, which brought an extra $4.50 to their weekly pay envelopes.

The new contract runs for two years with an additional increase of $3 a week for the third year.

Under the new scale musicians will receive $87 a week for the next two years and $90 the third year.

Another point in dispute, the employment of four piece orchestras in smaller theaters was left to arbitration.

Traffic Light Galena and Seventh Installed
The last of several electrically operated traffic signals was installed and placed in operation yesterday afternoon at the intersection of Galena avenue and Seventh street.

The signal is of the same type as the one which has been in operation for several weeks at the corner of North Galena avenue and Lincoln Way.

Contractor William Cahill, who installed the system, has arranged the timing of traffic with the new light to about 23 seconds, covering traffic in all directions.

POWER OF FAITH—

If you think you are beaten, you are.
If you think you dare not, you don't!
If you like to win, but you think you can't,
It's almost certain you won't!
If you think you'll lose, you've lost!
For out of the world we find Success begins with a fellow's will—
It's all in the state of mind.

Winner Tonight to Be "Miss America"

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Fifteen beauties remained today of 73 competitors for the 1926 title of "Miss America" and these faced reduction to five in the afternoon and to the winner tonight. The winner must have brains as well as beauty, the judges have decided.

There were three favorites this morning, the winners in an evening gown contest last night. "Miss Tulsa, Okla." (Norma Smallwood) took first place, "Miss Greater New York" (Ruth Patterson) second and "Miss Washington" (Marjorie Joesting), third. "Miss Tulsa" wore a delft blue gown of velvet and the other two white satin trimmed with rhinestones. The other twelve who were in the race today were the Misses Bridgeport, Yonkers, Newark, Orange, N. J., Philadelphia, Denver, Seattle, Lansing, Kansas City, St. Louis, Dallas and Norfolk.

Flappers Venturesome—But Virtuous

New York, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Lady Nancy Astor, Virginia born member of the British parliament, thinks the democrats should nominate a woman for president of the United States in 1928.

"I don't believe they will do it," she said in a speech last night before 1,500 members of the League of Women Voters at the Waldorf Astoria, "but it would be amusing if they would."

As for the flappers she doesn't quite know what they are, unless the term means the modern young woman whom Lady Astor considers more venturesome but quite as virtuous as their grandmothers.

Women will never go back on prohibition in her opinion.
"They are thinking," she said, "of a world ahead—a world which will be rid of rum runners and law breakers in which children can grow up with a reasonable chance of not knowing the evils of drink."

Lady Astor will leave tonight for home on the Olympic.

Mensch Family Reunion Held Sunday

Sterling.—The fifth annual reunion of the Mensch family was held at Lawrence park on Sunday, Sept. 5, when seventy-four relatives gathered to enjoy the day in a social way. Although rain fell nearly all day everyone had a delightful time.

At one-thirty a bounteous picnic dinner was served from the well filled baskets brought in by the ladies, and to which all did ample justice.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Mark Williams of Dixon, business was transacted and officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Joseph Mann; vice president, J. E. Young; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. LeRoy LaFevre.

Twila and Ethel Shaw sang two solos. Roberta Sanders and Robert Williams favored with recitations, after which a good social hour was spent.

Ice cream and cake were served and the guests then departed for home wishing for many more happy reunions.

The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mensch, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mensch and two children of Mason City, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reed, Miss Ida Reed, Royal Yates and Mrs. Eva Yates and grand-daughter of St. Louis, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alters and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Williams and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mensch of Dixon, Miss Mae Reitz, Lewis Mensch of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Robert San-ders and three daughters of Ashton, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chalmers and two daughters, Mrs. Maggie Mensch, Will Mensch, Mr. and Mrs. John Reitz, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Pittman, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Deets and sons, Mrs. Mabel Shaw and daughters of Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Shultz and daughter of Lyndon, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Behrends and son, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mann and family of Rock Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mann and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Young and sons, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shultz of Morrison.

The awakening first came at the famous Rue de la Paix in Paris. Seeing waiters trotting about with tankards of hot coffee and glasses of cracked ice for ice coffee it seemed fairly reasonable to think that ice tea would be equally simple.

The waiter looked puzzled at my "the avee glace." I tried "the frappe" then, as no results came, "the froid." We waited and waited.

At the end of a half hour we asked for information and were told that the tea "was cooling." Another hour and in came a teapot of once hot tea, which had been standing about for an hour as the waiter hoped for it to become cold, finally despairing. He poured it into the cups with milk and sugar.

Ever an optimist, I tried it again and again. At Malmalson where Josephine lived after her divorce. An hour's wait and lukewarm tea. I tried it at the Lido with the same result. I tried it in Rome and I tried it in Florence.

I have concluded that one cannot get ice tea in Europe.

I changed my song of desire to "iced chocolate." Again I waited an hour for a lukewarm pot of chocolate. Malted milk and milk shakes are unknown. But the sidewalk cafes from Paris to London serve gooey sundaes of plum and melon and fig sauces.

Butter continues to be only an appetizer with the sardines, and occasionally a breakfast luxury throughout the continent.

Vegetables are served before of after the meat as they were in France.

And spaghetti throughout Italy comes first of all, and no tears or threats will bring your soup first.

Yes, it's fun to crawl into the black cell where Beatrice Cenci waited her death, and it's fun to pick violets from Shelly's grave.

But I do like ice tea with lemon and mint on a hot day!

WESTMINSTER GUILD TO MEET TUESDAY EVENING—

Wesleyan Missionary Society Meeting

The Wesleyan Missionary Society of the M. E. Church held a very pleasant and profitable meeting at the hospitable parsonage home of Rev. and Mrs. Carlson.

The meeting opened with the hymn "Take My Life and Let It Be." The devotional period conducted by Miss Irma Grose was very helpful. After the Secretary and Treasurer's reports and the Corresponding Secretary's communications were read and acted upon Mrs. Richard Gartman discussed the Home Study chapter "Looking Backward" in a very interesting manner.

The Foreign Chapter dealing with conditions in Palestine was also ably handled by Mr. H. M. Hey.

A group of gospel hymns sung by Rev. A. W. Carlson accompanied by Miss Frances Ackert were very inspiring after which Mrs. Henry Ley-dig pleased all with a reading, "The Bridge Builder" responding to the encore with a humorous number. Miss Ackert's exceptionally well rendered double piano number closed the evening's program.

A social hour of various games planned by the committee was then enjoyed followed by the serving of dainty refreshments.

Papp-Hoffman Wedding Aug. 31

CHICAGO-NEW YORK RELAY RACE FOR 1927 IS PLANNED

Dixon Y. M. C. A. Hopes to Have Boys in Record Event

The long distance relay race is fast coming to the front again and the race between Dixon and Sterling of last year is bound to be more successful this year than ever before.

That a New York-Chicago relay race will put 12,000 boys in training for a year is the object of Y. M. C. A. officials in announcing what you call the World's greatest relay race to be run from New York to Chicago on July 15th, 1927.

This will be the 20th anniversary of a similar relay race conducted in 1907. Four thousand boys will be picked from those in training to actually run the race, each boy covering a quarter of a mile of the approximately 1000 miles between the two cities.

Only boys born since the original relay will be eligible to compete. The time for the race for the thousand miles between the two cities was 116 hours, 50 minutes, 30 seconds. The race will be run against time, day and night, rain or shine. Every runner will be carefully picked and must not only be a good athlete but must represent his Association in all-round development.

Runners must be over 15 and under 20 years of age on the day the race starts. It is hoped that Dixon will be able to have one or more runners in this relay race next summer.

"Friendly Indians" to Meet Tuesday Evening

The first club to open fall activities in the Boys' Department of the local Y. M. C. A. will be organized under the name of "The Friendly Indians." This will be a small group of young boys for training along the four sides of life that the Association stands for. It will emphasize, however, the physical and service side of the program.

The first meeting of this club will be held next Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. at 6 o'clock and will take the form of a scramble supper. Leaders will be present and the years program for the boys will be outlined.

Fall Coats are bloused

No matter how it is achieved, the blouse is there; slyly, subtly or boldly it makes itself known in the newest Fall Coats. Sometimes there is just the tiniest bit of a fullness introduced by a dart or two over the hips. Or perhaps the wrap is belted with its panel back exploiting the blouse and at the same time keeping the slender line. The Dolman wrap, most sophisticated of all, carries out the blouse treatment delightfully—wide above the waist and straight and slender below.

"THE STAGGER CENSUS."

New York is busy with what it calls a "stagger census," but the phrase should not be interpreted as signifying an effort to enumerate the inebriates of the metropolis. It is the purpose of the count rather than the characteristics of the counted that provides the interesting name.

The "stagger census" is undertaken in the hope that, once data is available upon the working hours of the 1,500,000 men and women employed in Manhattan, it may be possible to "stagger" these hours as to simplify the ever more complicated transit problem.

Surface lines and subways have their traffic peaks during the morning and evening rush hours and must provide equipment against it even as corporations which supply telephones, gas or electric service must be prepared for multiplied demand upon their facilities during certain periods every day. Obviously, could working hours for any city be "staggered" to spread out these peak loads over longer periods in the morning and afternoon, it might make possible important economies in rolling stock, current, and general operating expense. At first glance the idea seems altogether logical and feasible, but New York should not be too optimistic.

It is true that hours of work show a tendency to grow shorter but their accustomed place in the twenty-four has not varied. Men and women expect to devote certain periods to the earning of their livings, and they naturally prefer to work while other people work. It is to be questioned if employers, however interested in a city's transit problem, will care to disagree with their employees in the effort a solution for this problem which every city faces.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, JR.

The public is informed that William Jennings Bryan, Jr., has taken a hand in California politics. We assume that he resides in the Golden state. It is a little difficult to keep track of the habitats of the Bryans. We have Mrs. Ruth Owens, who was a candidate for representative in Florida, and Charles W. Bryan, who runs for office in Nebraska, and William Jennings Bryan, Jr., in California, merely a participant in things political. He is not a candidate.

During the life of his father the younger Bryan was in eclipse. Rarely was his name in print. It was mentioned that he was at the trial of John Scopes at Dayton, Tenn., where William J. Bryan was active with the prosecution.

The particular bit of news that carries the name of William J. Bryan, Jr., relates that he has issued a statement in support of Isidore S. Duckweiler, who is a candidate for the democratic nomination for United States senator in California, with a convention endorsement. Opposed to this candidate is John P. Elliott, who is without the convention endorsement and is charging that party leaders are trying to deliver the state to Tammany hall by electing Duckweiler. Elliott charges that the convention candidate is in favor of Al Smith for president.

At this distance it may be guessed that the endorsement of Bryan the younger was sought in order to purge the convention candidacy of its bad reputation of connection with Tammany.

KENT'S WINTER PROGRAM WILL START OCT. 3rd

Sunday Evening Hour to be Better Than Before, He Says

Announcement was made today by A. Atwater Kent, of Philadelphia, that starting Sunday evening, October 3, he will begin the broadcasting of a new series of weekly programs by nationally famous grand opera and concert artists. The lineup of stars revealed by the announcement and the arrangements that have been made to make available for these concerts artists of the very highest rank indicate that the series for the coming winter may eclipse even the high standard set by the Atwater Kent program of last winter.

Among those already scheduled for early appearance in the new Atwater Kent series are such stars as Frances Alda, Lucioza Bori, Madame Schumann-Heink, Frieda Hempel, Josef Hofmann, Edward Johnson, Albert Spalding, Maria Kurenko, Louise Homer, Reinold Werrenath, Margaret Matzenauer, Mary Lewis, Rosa Pon-selle and Charles Hackett.

Through an arrangement with the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company of a sort never before effected by any outside agency, Mr. Kent has secured the call on the services of the artists of that great organization for radio appearances. This connection will enable him to put on the air, in the course of this new series, a number of artists not heretofore available for broadcasting because of their engagements with the Metropolitan.

The new series of Atwater Kent programs will be on the air each Sunday evening from 9:15 to 10:15 eastern standard time. They will be broadcast through a hookup of fifteen stations, as follows: WEAF, New York; WJAR, Providence; WEEI, Boston; WCCO, Minneapolis-St. Paul; WEAR, Cleveland; WLIR, Chicago; WFL and WOO, alternating, at Philadelphia; WCAE, Pittsburgh; WGR, Buffalo; WOC, Davenport; WTGO, Worcester; KSD, St. Louis and WWJ Detroit.

TAX DODGERS ARE HIT IN ADDRESS BY GEORGE FRUIN

Dixon Member of Board of Review Spoke at Farmers' Picnic

Col. George Fruin of the Lee county Board of Review told farmers of Sublette township yesterday afternoon that certain public-spirited citizens of Dixon stood ready to advise others of methods of concealing taxable property, thus bringing a hardship upon the farmer who possessed visible taxable property. The address of Col. Fruin was the feature of the afternoon program at the annual picnic at Sublette, sponsored by the Farmer's State Bank of Sublette and the Sublette Farmers' Elevator company.

"Tax conditions at the present time are the worst in the history of Lee county," Col. Fruin stated in his talk which was on the subject of "Land Valuations."

"Farmers who purchased land at the peak price are today paying taxes on the same valuation as was assessed against these same lands at the time when the peak price was on. You ask, what remedy is there for this evil? My advice to you is to use some care and precaution in the selection of your assessor. When you have found a good assessor, counsel with him and work toward the lessening of taxation and removing this unfair condition. At one time the rate of taxation on Lee county land was as low as 40 cents on the one-hundred dollar valuation, now it is 85 cents, more than double the amount, and what relief is there in sight?"

Find Concealed Property
"There are those public-spirited and patriotic citizens in Dixon, who stand ready to advise those who possess considerable land and money of means of getting away from taxation. Much of this practice was uncovered by the present board of review, the members of which, while working in close harmony, found that many farm mortgages had passed into a third party's hands for one reason only, and that to escape taxation. It that fair to you farmers who have visible property which cannot escape taxation? I believe that it is an American citizen's duty to pay taxes, and I believe that it is most unpatriotic to scheme and devise means and methods to escape taxation and then counsel and advise others along the same lines."

"It would doubtless sound improbable to you, if I were to tell you that between one hundred and 150 automobiles in Dixon township are not being taxed. It is a case where the assessor in his restricted time, has been unable to find them. I am in favor of the passage of a law that will call for the payment of automobile taxes at the same time that the application for license plates is made."

Uncovered Unfairness.
"A rank injustice has been heaped upon the taxpayers of this county, through the covering up, hiding if you choose to call it that, of taxable property. A man may live in a $25,000 home and be proud of it, but he objects strongly to the payment of taxes on that same property. If he cannot afford to pay taxes on such property, he should live more within his means. The board of review uncovered some of this unfairness in taxation and some of these persons were called in and will pay tax on property that has been concealed. That body, however, was unable to uncover all of it and no other body of three men in the same space, of time can accomplish the task. Your board of review worked in harmony throughout the time and have tried earnestly to lessen the taxation in Lee county and we believe that we have been fairly successful. Fearlessness, as should be required of all public officers, predominated among the members of the board in all of their investigations."

Others Made Talks.
County Clerk Fred G. Dimick, Dorance Thompson, candidate for the office of county treasurer and former supervisor William Brucker were called upon by Chairman Joseph Glaser for short talks and responded. Judge William Leech was unable to appear on the program on account of illness and Attorney John B. Erwin was detained in Dixon on business and could not be present.

The program of athletics was held in the school yard and was attended by a large crowd. The various events resulted as follows:

Boys' race—Eugene Lauer, first; Othmar Lauer, second.

Girls' race under 14—Velma Glaser, first; Lorraine Lauer, second.

Girls' race under 10—Jane Reeser, first; Helen Stouffer, second.

Tug of war—George Malach, captain; Ed Wolfe, George Erbes, P. Fischer, H. Marsham, P. Hallmeier, R. Lauer, L. Schubler, Fred Dingess, winners. William Glaser, captain, George Fruin, Ed Erbes, J. Fischer, George Fauble, F. Henkel, W. A. Lefelmann, Fred Koehler, P. Koehler, losers.

Free for all race—Ralph Lauer, first; Leo Glaser, second.

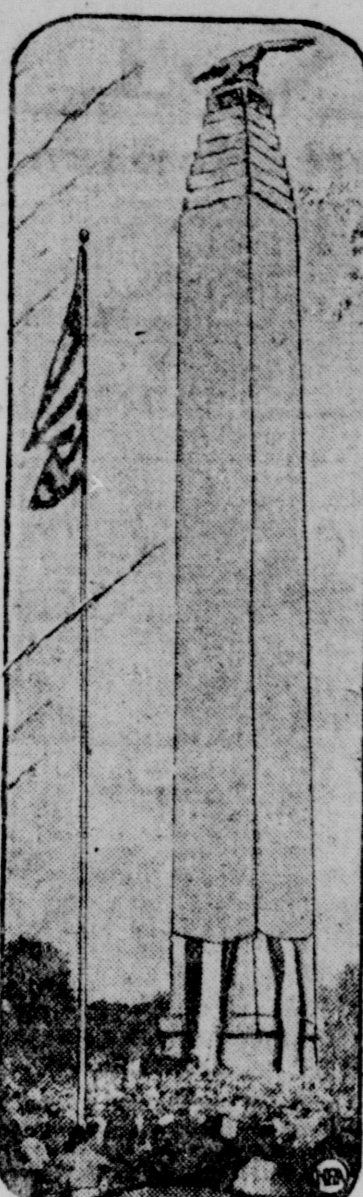

Professional race—100 yards—George Malach, first; George Fruin, second.

Chairman William Avery of the board of supervisors and the board of review nobly defended his claim to the championship title of Lee county in the popular pastime of barnyard golf. H. Marsham of Sublette was a close second for the honors.

Ashton Won Ball Game.

The baseball game between Sublette and Ashton was a warmly contested event, Ashton winning by a score of 2 to 0. Ward Miller drove a triple into the cornfield neighborhood in left field in the second inning and an error set him across the plate for the first run. The next count came in the first half of the ninth when Ashton bunched hits and Sublette—Maier, 3b; Lauer, 2b; J. Malach, 1b; Helsing, c; Koehler, p; G. Malach, lf; Knauer, ss; Michael, cf; Dingess, rf. Umpire—Otto Malach.

At 5:30 the ladies served a fried chicken supper in the basement of the church and for two hours a crowd waited at the door to enjoy the wonderful meal.

In the evening, an old fashioned dancing party was held in the Armory hall which attracted a large crowd, and brought to a close another very successful picnic and entertainment which has become a long anticipated event in Sublette township.

Oats Not Profitable

Crop in This State

DeKalb, Ill., Sept. 10.—(AP)—With the realization that a successful oats crop is a financial failure, the farmers in Illinois have cast about in search of a substitute to grow in its place, said Thomas H. Roberts, of DeKalb county soil improvement association.

"For some time," Mr. Roberts said, "the farmers have been able to buy oats for feeding uses at a smaller cost than if they produced them on their own lands. The question comes up as to the nature of a crop he can grow in place of oats that will bring better financial returns."

"Figures from Champaign and Platt counties lead us to believe that winter wheat is a better paying crop for the farmers over a period of years than oats would be. This is the result of experiments made by the department of Farm Management of the University of Illinois."

ROSENBERG-BUD TAYLOR BATTLE BEST IN MIDWEST

Unusual Interest Shown in Scrap in Chicago September 16th

Chicago, Sept. 10.—The Rosenberg-Taylor battle for the bantamweight championship of the world to be held at the Cubs' Ball Park, Chicago, Sept. 16th, is outrivalling the Dempsey-Tunney bout in interest and is sure to be the greatest fight attraction ever held in the west. Boxing fans are coming from every point of the compass to see the little fellows fight for the world's title. Reservations have been received from as far west as California, as far south as Memphis, as far north as Minneapolis and from Cleveland and Pittsburgh in the east.

The low prices for the show are causing quite a bit of comment among the fans. In spite of the fact that Promoter Jim Mullen is paying the greatest guarantee ever given to a bantamweight champion he believes the size of the arena will bring in enough patrons to justify the low admission prices.

Rosenberg worked six fast rounds yesterday. His stable of sparring partners has been increased to three men as the pace the champ is setting requires a fresh man every third round. He took on Archie Bell, Jackie London and Johnny Green and kept these boys on the jump every minute. It is evident that the champion plans on taking the play away from Taylor in the first round and keeping out in front the entire distance. This is Taylor's favorite method of fighting and Rosenberg will try to steal the challenger's stuff. Taylor boxed with Jimmy McDermott and Don Davis yesterday, went on the road in the morning and gave every indication of being in wonderful shape. With boys trying to take the play away from the other, there is going to be some hair-raising action from the first bell to the last.

The preliminary card has just been announced by Promoter Mullen. The supporting cast is far above the average and will show top-notchers in every bout. Emil Paluso of Salt Lake City meets Archie Bell of New York in the ten round semi wind-up. Jimmy McDermott, Taylor's chief sparring partner meets Johnny Green, who occupies the same position in Rosenberg's stable, in an eight rounder. Corporal Izzy Swartz of New York will battle Ernie Peters of Chicago in an eight round flyweight bout, as the opening number on the card.

NEW FORWARD PASS RULE TO GET TEST IN COMING SEASON

Provides Penalty for Incomplete Pass on First Two Downs

Chicago, Sept. 10.—(AP)—The newly adopted penalty attaching to the forward pass will soon receive a practical test, and the result will be watched with interest. The guardians of football last fall succeeded in putting through a rule where a team failing to complete a pass on the first two downs will be set back five yards for each failure.

The adoption of this rule stirred up considerable comment and everybody connected with the game in an official capacity made a statement for or against the new rule. Every radical change in the playing code of the ball sport however, has provoked of almost as much discussion.

The sharpshooters who have long had the spectacular forward pass as a target, have a stock argument that the unrestrained use of the forward pass in the late moments of the game by a losing team, is unjust to the spectators. They contend that the wild passing of the ball detracts from the game itself.

In the Illinois-Michigan last fall, the Illinois tried some desperate passlung in the closing seconds of the game. The Wolverines were leading 3 to 0, and Illinois tried to spring Grange loose with the ball in his arms. Daugherty and Britton passed many times, and the vast throng was wild with excitement. The Illinois Red Head failed to make a catch and get away, but the spectators surely had a big kick out of the attempt. Coaches, undoubtedly will instruct their teams in the continued use of the pass, although more deceptive formations may be evolved, to screen the play and make it more certain. The ground gaining possibilities of the play make it certain that the mild penalty in vogue will not stop its general use.

Coach Stagg of the Maroons, a member of the rules committee, rather sagely pointed out that there is no penalty for completing the pass. Other students of the game believe that the restriction may be helpful or more evenly balance the game.

Augustana Coaches Getting Early Start

Rock Island, Sept. 9.—(AP)—An early start on most of the other Little 19 teams has been obtained by Coaches Peterson and Swadberg of the Augustana Blue and Gold Eleven, and it will stand the squad in good stead for eight hard games have been scheduled. Four of the best of the 1925 squad are lost to this year's team by failure to return to school. Jerry Miller, of Davenport, the Augies' smashing fullback, has been preparing for the season by tossing bags of cement this summer. Others have been toting ice and chucking shocks of wheat in training for heaving forward passes. Bradley, a traditional foe, has been dropped from this year's Blue and Gold schedule because of conflicting dates. Knox, another old time rival, is the first major game on this year's schedule, the annual fricas taking place at Galesburg, Oct. 2. The Rugies will practice on St. Rude's the previous Saturday. Monmouth has the Homecoming date this year, the annual festivities at Ericson field being set for October 30.

Have Been Neighbors For Five Generations

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Five generations of Matheny boys have asked permission "to go over and play at William's" who have lived in the same block with them since 1824, here.

John Williams and Charles H. Matheny were among the first half hundred settlers of Springfield and neither family have ever moved from this city since that time.

Major Elijah Iles, closely related to the Williams family, erected Springfield's first store within a few feet of the peg, driven by surveyors, marking the center of the city.

The life of Springfield has been closely connected ever since with the lives of these three families, Williams, Matheny, Iles.

FOUR WESTERN TEAMS INVADING THE EAST TODAY

Fighting Hard, Each of Them Hopes to Better Position

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The west has invaded the east with four fighting teams to battle for the National League pennant.
St. Louis leading, and three games ahead of Cincinnati, has engagements first with the Boston Braves, buried deep in the cellar. Chicago, in fourth place, but with a chance, meanwhile meets Philadelphia, Boston's rival for the foot of the ladder.
The Pirates, who top the Cubs by three games, will entertain the Reds in a double header.
Cincinnati rested yesterday, Hornsby and his Cardinal pitching staff perched in the Yank grand stand gaining probable world series pointers. Meanwhile Pittsburgh and Chicago resumed the fight for third place but split two games and dropped a lone point each to the leaders.
Cubs Split Even.

Joe Bush hooked up in a pitching duel with Percy Jones of the Cubs, in the first game and made sure of his 2 to 1 victory by doubling in the second inning to chase Traynor and Cronin across the plate. Then Pittsburgh made five errors in a 10 to 1 debacle.

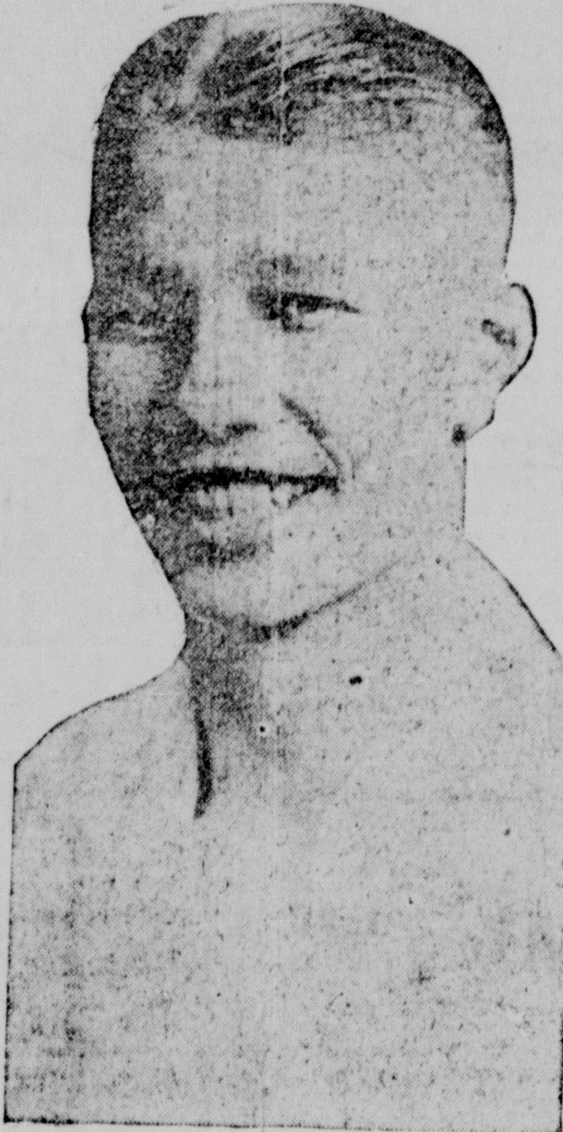

Philadelphia closed the season with Brooklyn, losing 12-6. Cy Williams hit two homers.

The Giants nosed out Boston in an eleven inning tilt 3-2.

Cleveland virtually gave up the ghost in its chase to catch the New York Yanks. The Indians dropped eight games behind the leaders when Detroit won 8-1. The Yanks showed the watching Cardinals how to hit. The Red Sox were slaughtered 10-0.

The St. Louis Browns lost two to Chicago 8-1 and 5-1.

Hornsby, champion batsman and marvelous second sacker, has been almost as impressive as a manager. He has his club hustling all the time. It is an interesting ball club for that reason if no other.

It would be most fitting if so great a star as Hornsby was to bring to St. Louis its first pennant winner.

In this connection it is interesting to note that St. Louis all but lost the great Hornsby a few years back. Formerly Manager McGraw of the Giants is sorry he didn't make the trade suggested.

Turned Down Offer
Lack of harmony between Hornsby and Branch Rickey, then managing the club, caused the report to spread that the star of the Cardinals was on the market.

Manager McGraw of the Giant admitted he was after Hornsby and said he was willing to go as high as $200,000 in bidding for his services.

It is said that St. Louis countered by asking for Frisch and a bundle of cash to boot.

Frisch was having his greatest year that season and McGraw came back by saying, great as he regarded Hornsby, he wouldn't trade Frisch even up for him.

Now Frisch is under suspension by Manager McGraw for insubordination while Hornsby is leading a gallant fight for St. Louis' first pennant.

Ingwersen to Take Up His Iowa Eleven to Urbana Oct. 16

Urbana — It will be master against pupil when the University of Illinois football team meets the strong Iowa State university eleven in the Illinois stadium October 16 in the opening conference game here. Robert C. Zuppke, famous Illini coach and Burt A. Ingwersen, former Illinois star and tackle and pupil of "Zup", but now coach at Iowa, will match wits against each other.

Ingwersen is a graduate of Illinois and during his collegiate career he won nine varsity letters, participating in football, basketball, and baseball. In 1918 he was acting captain of the eleven and the following year he piloted the basketball team. The Illini have a warm spot in their hearts for Burt.

The Iowa game, the first of four important contests which the Illini will place on successive week-ends and one of the big three home attractions, has been selected for the annual "homecoming" football attraction. "Homecoming" is always a gala affair and the stadium has been packed for it ever since it was opened in 1923.

The Hawkeyes were the homecoming feature back in 1922 and Illinois field was inadequate to take care of the crowds who wanted to come. Therefore, the Illini, while they believe that tickets will be available for many weeks, rather figure of another sell-out.

Iowa has eight veterans back from the machine which defeated "Red" Grange and mates his last year, 12-10, and that means that Zuppke will have his hands full trying to start the Big Ten campaign with a victory.

Bobbie Jones in Form for National Tourney

Short Hills, N. J., Sept. 10—(AP)—Bobby Jones is in form. His rivals practicing with him for next week's national amateur golf tournament agree to that.

The champion, seeking the title for the third consecutive year, shot four birdies in a row at the start of the round yesterday although he finished with a 75, three above par for a difficult course.

She Bared Her Soul!

To the man whose kindly tolerance and sympathy have put thousands back on the road to happiness

AND she was one of hundreds who have done the same—told secrets she would not tell her mother—or perhaps her husband—but in the confessional of the Judge's chambers she revealed all. Her story and those of scores of others—men as well as women—are now being retold for society's good in

"The Moral Revolt" by Judge Ben B. Lindsey
Judge of the Family Court of Denver

This is the most candid and startling series of articles ever published in any magazine. Reasoning from the stories of real life told him in court day after day, Judge Lindsey has reached certain conclusions, and now he boldly asks: "Is a new code of sex morals being created?" It is a startling question—but a question that has heretofore existed unasked in the minds of all intelligent men and women; and it is no more startling than the evidence that Judge Lindsey offers in his great series of articles entitled "The Moral Revolt."

When you have read the first of the Judge's articles and considered it, turn a few pages of the same magazine and read the first article in another astonishing series in which the internationally famous beauty and social leader—

Mrs. Philip Lydig Reveals Secrets of New York Society
ALMOST since girlhood, beautiful Mrs. Philip Lydig has been an unquestioned leader of New York's ultra-smart society. Now for the first time Mrs. Lydig proceeds to turn the spotlight on that society—telling in great detail why she finds it futile, false and corrupt. The statements she makes will astonish you—story after story of tragedies heretofore never publicly disclosed. If chronicles of the real lives of the prominently fashionable—heretofore known only to those on the inside of that group—are of interest to you, then you must read Mrs. Lydig's revealing article, "Marriage Without Love."

In these two remarkable series—the one by Mrs. Lydig, the other by Judge Lindsey—The Red Book Magazine for October inaugurates its new plan of adding the drama of Fact to the drama of Fiction—which latter is expressed by Rupert Hughes in his splendid novel, "We Live But Once," and by these other distinguished novelists and story-writers: Ruth Comfort Mitchell, James Francis Dwyer, Struthers Burt, Samuel Merwin, Leroy Scott, Thyrza Samter Winslow, Robert Benchley, Wm. H. Osborne, Arthur K. Akers and Michael J. Phillips.

Thudding impacts of bodies, creaking leather, flying cleats, haranguing coaches—King Piskin is coming into his own again. Limping collegians, bruised and sore from first practices, are hardening themselves for another season of grid warfare. Frenchman Swims Channel for New Record This Morn

London, Sept. 10—(AP)—Georges Michel, Frenchman, today swam the English Channel from Cape Gris Nez, France, to England in eleven hours and five minutes. This constitutes a new record.

This is the third time this season the record has been broken. The record up to today was 12 hours and 43 minutes and was made by Ernst Vierkoetter, German, Aug. 30. Previously Gertrude Ederle of New York went across in 14 hours and 31 minutes. The only other swimmer to conquer the channel this year was Mrs. Mille Gade Corson of New York who on Aug. 28 made it in 15 hours 28 minutes.

TUNNEY'S CHEF BOSS OF CAMP AT MEAL TIME

Won't Let Challenger's Meal Get Cold as He Meets Friends

Stroudsburg, Pa., Sept. 10—(AP)—Restoration of nervous energy by relaxation, which is Gene Tunney's euphemism for loafing, is preparing the challenger for a week end of hard work. He expects to box tomorrow and Sunday. Today he was satisfied with plans to walk and run between nine and ten miles, enjoy a motor ride along mountain roads and bat a golf ball for a while. He has declined an invitation to go to Delaware Water Gap to be presented to the state convention of the American Legion. He shied from the amount of handshaking involved.

His chief worry is the informal entertaining he is forced to do. A suggestion that a man, woman or child has given 100 or more miles to see him has thus far brought him from his quarters to shake hands.

While visitors have been telling Tunney that "they knew him when", the soup has been getting cold. Now George Ransberry, chef, weighing 300 pounds and able to enforce his threats if need be, has ruled that the dinner hour must be just that. The chef is independently wealthy and cooks only for love of the game. Lou Fink, trainer, and Billy Gibson, Tunney's manager, will be two of the three handlers in Tunney's corner for the championship bout. The third as not been selected.

Referee of Big Bout Will Be Kept Secret

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 10—(AP)—The name of the referee of the Dempsey-Tunney fight is to be withheld until the night of the fight. Frank Wiener, chairman of the State Athletic Commission denied reports that he might himself be the third man in the ring, saying he wouldn't take the job for $100,000.

Good Thoughts for Good People

"Consecration" may be defined as the dedicating of one's life to the service of God. Many people are perhaps, a little averse to undertaking it, thinking that to set apart one's life for the service of God would necessitate the giving up of much that is held dear. They may be reassured, however, for no one can ever really be deprived of good. Indeed, as we daily learn to rejoice in serving God, our capacity for experiencing good will increase.

—The Christian Science Monitor.

We are not here to play, to dream, to drift. We have hard work to do, and loads to lift. Shun not the struggle—face it; 'tis God's gift.

—Malbait D. Babcock.

He has not learned the lesson of life who does not every day surmount a fear.

—Emerson.

I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil.

—Christ Jesus.

All who joy would win, must share it—Happiness was born a twin.

—Byron.

Wherewith shall come before the Lord, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old? He hath showed the, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

Pittsburgh, Pa.—If the present trend of styles continues the Rev. James Cox of Old St. Patrick's church expects that by 1935 the Atlantic City beauty pageant will be staged in the nude in the name of art.

New York—Lady Astor lacks sufficient intelligence to bob her hair. She says so herself, but takes off her hat to those who have. Also she may be amazed at short hair and short skirts but they are far healthier than long skirts and paper curls and other paraphernalia women have had to put up with for years.

Moscow—A woman in trousers is to command a trans-Atlantic steamer. Captain Marie Malagoiny has already served as able seaman, pilot and second officer on the Black Seas. Mme. Alexandria Kollantay, who has radical views on matrimony, is to be minister to Mexico.

New York—Offers for the services of Mrs. Corson total $650,000, including indorsement of bathing suits and swimming stunts which she practiced ahead of time for vaudeville so sure was she that she would swim the channel.

Warsaw — Extra: Ex-Premier Skrzynski to wed daughter of Henry Ford. Heiress will bring pot of $300,000,000 to Poland. Newspaper headline something along that order started the city until Americans explained that Henry has no daughter.

Orange, N. J.—The boss of all the Edison industries now is Charles Edison, 37. While he is running the works, the father, Thomas A., will be spending 16 hours a day in his laboratories inventing some new. Chairman of the board for several years, Charles recently became president. He and dad swapped administrative jobs.

substitutes if you seek the famous Quaker flavor

THE point to remember when buying breakfast oats is that only Quaker Oats have the rich Quaker flavor that you want.

One package of oats without that flavor may spoil your breakfasts for a week.

The price you pay is the same. Thus "trying" a substitute is a folly. Quaker flavor is the result of some 50 years milling experience. No other oats has it. Quaker milling, too, retains much of the "bulk" of oats. And that makes laxatives less often needed.

QUALIFICATIONS OF TEACHERS NOT STRINGENT ENOUGH

So Says Francis Blair, State Supt. of Public Instruction

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Public school teachers should have to meet as high qualifications as those demanded of trained nurses, dentists and veterinary surgeons, F. G. Blair, superintendent of public instruction in Illinois has written for the Educational Press Bulletin.

"Teaching will never become the great character-forming, nation-building force that the founders of our government gave to it," said Mr. Blair, "unless we insist on more strict requirements."

"Ignorance and free government cannot exist together, and universal freedom means universal education. There can be no universal education without teachers who have sufficient preparation, character and skill to develop in the youth of the nation those qualities and powers which fitted them to act and vote intelligently."

"Public instruction is one of the greatest factors toward insuring sound citizenship. There is a very general opinion that the contribution which makes to the strength of individual character and to the strength of the state and nation depends entirely upon the character and fitness of the teachers."

"But while there is evidence that the general public is coming to attach more and more importance to the preparation of teachers for their work, there still lingers in the minds of some an impression that anyone who has had a little bit of education is qualified to teach. Every state-wide examination proves that fact. Letters by prominent persons come to the examining board urging the certification of certain people who have shown they are not qualified to pass the examination. Of course, no one believes that an examination is an infallible test of one's fitness to teach. The law recognizes this and allows certain persons to receive certificates without examinations."

"Notwithstanding the fact that more and more of our teachers are entering the profession through the open door of professional training, there are thousands of others who annually seek to enter through the unsatisfactory method of examination."

Unknown Dropped Dead Byron Depot

Byron.—An unidentified middle-aged man, employed as a section hand on the Chicago, Great Western railroad here, dropped dead near the depot shortly before noon Thursday.

Annual passes and cards on the line indicated the man had been a locomotive engineer in the employ of the Rock Island railroad for 25 years, but from each card the man's name had been effaced.

The only tangible clue that may lead to identification was the union card issued by Blue Island lodge, Locomotive Engineers and Firemen.

Coroner Jesse C. Atkins arrived from Forreston to conduct an inquest. He expressed the opinion that the man had been stricken with a heart attack.

HELP YOURSELF TO HEALTH

W. K. Kellogg

Splitting heads

HER head was throbbing dizzily with pain. Black spots danced impishly before her eyes. Her hands were as cold as her despairing heart. Where had her vigor gone? What thief of life had stolen her health and charm? These questions are daily asked by millions of women. The answer is—constipation.

But there is one sure, safe, pleasant way to be permanently rid of constipation. Use Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly every day. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal—and you will know freedom from this dread disease which you never thought possible.

You'll like Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Its delightful nutty flavor makes it good as a cereal. Serve with milk or cream alone or with fresh or preserved fruit. Sprinkle over other cereals or cook with hot cereals. Try it in soups too. Also use the many recipes given on every package. If eaten regularly, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring permanent relief or the grocer returns your money.

Be careful! Only ALL-BRAN brings sure results. Be sure to get Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. A part-bran product is only partially effective—maybe not at all. Kellogg's is the original and only 100% ALL-BRAN. Doctors recommend it. All grocers sell it. Buy a package today. Note how much better you'll feel in a week. Served in leading restaurants.

Municipal League to Discuss Funds

Rockford, Ill., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Contributions by public utility operators, including Samuel Insull, Ira C. Copley and Clement Studebaker, to his campaign funds of members of the State Commerce Commission will be brought up for discussion at the Illinois Municipalities Home Rules meeting, here, September 23, Mayor J. H. Andrews of Kewanee said today.

"All mayors, members of city councils and city officials in northern Illinois," said Mayor Andrews, "have been invited to attend the discussion. Speakers of that meeting will likely be Mayor Dever, Chicago; Francis X. Busch, corporation counsel of the city of Chicago, and Commissioner Willis J. Spaulding, Springfield.

"These men will address the members regarding the restoration of home rule to Illinois cities in the matter of control and regulation of public utilities. A round table discussion will follow the speeches.

"Our proposed remedy is, first, the absolute repeal of the Public Utility Act, and secondly, the amendment of Section 6, relative to the right of cities by referendum vote to exclude the jurisdiction of the State Commerce Commission.

"The executive committee is planning a meeting at East St. Louis, at a later date."

Best Dressed Woman Marries

Marie Rietzl Ford, said by many to be the best-dressed woman in Paris, has married Frank B. Kramer, wealthy New York contractor. She is shown here in an ermine lined coat, part of the wardrobe that has given her such distinction. Her husband is reported to have already settled $1,000,000 on his bride. Mr. and Mrs. Kramer will return to America soon.

Already Planning Channel Swim

Marjorie Anne, 2, and Clemington Corson, Jr., 4, children of the second woman conqueror of the English Channel, are interested in newspaper pictures of their mother. Their grandmother, Mrs. Charles Oralla (right) of Blomson, Va., says the children already are excellent swimmers and are talking of the day when they, too, can start out from Cape Griz Nez.

Queen of the Flickers

Night moving pictures filmed in the last seven months have had the advantage of this star's acting. She is Nancy Kelly, 5 years old. Here she is shown at a Long Island studio. It ought not to require much beside her appearance to insure the success of a picture.

LIL CARPENTER

I guess our little son will be a carpenter some day. At least the way he's actin' sorta makes it look that way. We never fret 'bout where he is. We always know he's around, 'cause, even when he can't be seen, we plainly hear him pound. Yep, pop bought him a hammer and a saw for birthday gifts, and every morning to the cellarway he always drifts. We've heard the wee saw buzzin', and the sound of driving nails. Whatever he runs into is the thing that he assails.

He's split the ironing board in two, and smashed the furnace door. There used to be a shelf downstairs. There isn't any more. He's found a window squeakin'; never shuttin' as it should, so sonny got his hammer out—and now it's shut fer good. There's nothing he won't tackle, when a hammer can be used. He simply starts in bangin' and he never gets confused. He may turn out a carpenter as both of us expect, and if he does, just call him—if you want your whole house wrecked.

IN NEW YORK

New York—The epidemic of itching feet that has settled over this land and set it to dancing night and day, shows no signs of waning.

On the contrary, the coming winter is expected by Broadway, that barometer of national gaiety, to be the dancingest of all.

Even during the warm days the dance demand was such that prim and aristocratic old hostesses which long had scorned to supply jazz to its guests, slyly added roof gardens and put up signs "on with the dance."

Lunch time, once a period for small talk and rest, now is made hideous with the wall of the saxophone. One after another, the Broadway and near-Broadway eating places come out with notices of "luncheon dances." The Chinese chop suey houses came under the spell and, such was the crowd response, that competition made necessary the surrender of the inevitable.

And now comes the last blow—not even the moving picture shows are to be immune.

The newest and largest of the film palaces makes the unblushing announcement that a dance orchestra will be stationed in a roof garden dance hall for those who wish to "hoof" a little. This, it is further announced will solve the problem of what to do with the crowd that invariably stands sourly in the lobby waiting for the next show. They now may go up and dance while waiting.

It's a sad season, indeed, that doesn't give birth to a fad in wearing apparel.

Just now New York is witnessing a flare-back to the very gay hat band, but with a new twist to it.

The fashion is, among collegiate young men, and their elders to wear bands revealing the college colors, the fraternity insignia, or identification with some lodge or society.

Thus, if you are Harvard '26, you will blaze the crimson; if you are Eta Kappa Phi you will have the proper blue stripes and green triangles; or the golden zigzags of the Oriental Order of Smelts, and so forth. And "everybody's doing it!"

Which reminds me—what ever became of the beaded watch fob? Or those little rugs that came in cigarette packages and made such "wonderful" pillows? And peg-top pants?

Speaking of styles—the latest thing in high class bootlegging is to carry your stock in a false top built in a sedan car. Observing the operation of one of these traveling saloons, I noted that from five to ten cases may be carried, according to the size of the car. So skillfully are these "upper decks" arranged that they escape the eagle eye of prohibition sleuths and consequent seizure.

The VANITY CASE by CAROLYN WELLS

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Mysterious lights flash from the Heath bungalow one night and the next day Harbor Gardens, Long Island, is agog over the murder of MYRA HEATH and the disappearance of her husband, FERRY.

House guests of the Heaths are LAWRENCE INMAN, heir to Myra's fortune, and beautiful BUNNY MOORE, to whom suspicion points because of her queer actions.

Myra Heath never used cosmetics, yet when her body was found she was heavily rouged. A rare old bottle from her collection of glass had been used to kill her. Candles were burning at her head and feet.

At the country club the murder is discussed by SAM ANDERSON, Heath's rival for the club presidency; AL CUNNINGHAM, who is trying to solve the crime, and others.

Bunny is amazed to get a phone call from Perry Heath, saying Inman is the murderer. Cunningham goes to Anderson's house and there, while waiting for his host, is confronted by Perry Heath, who then slips away in the darkness. Anderson arrives soon after and upbraids Cunningham for letting Heath get away.

TODHUNTER BUCK, who is in love with Bunny, is witness to a nocturnal meeting between the girl and Heath. He tries to get Bunny to explain and when she refuses he calls in his friend, STEVE TRUITT, a famous detective. Bunny tells Trutt she has gone downstairs the night of the murder and seen Myra Heath, not yet cold in death, and Inman peeping from behind a curtain.

Trutt questions Inman and then, inspecting the Heath home, discovers something peculiar about a window. He then rejoins Buck and the latter's aunt, MRS. PRENTISS.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XLIV

"I FOUND practically nothing of importance," Trutt said, then, seeing Tod's blank look of disappointment, he added, "except Mr. Inman himself. He wouldn't admit he had seen you that night, Miss Bunny, until I told him that you had told me of it yourself. Then he loosened up a little, but he still feared a trap. However, he did admit that he went downstairs almost immediately after you came up, and said he went down to see what scared you so."

"H'm," said Mrs. Prentiss, "a little fishy. But, see here, Mr. Trutt, that checks up the lights. You know the place was dark as a pocket at one o'clock. Then, Bunny comes down at half past one, snaps on a bright light, and in about fifteen minutes turns it out and goes up stairs. Then, 'long about two, Mr. Inman comes down. Big light again, and soon he snaps it off and goes upstairs. Then, no more lights all night."

"Except the two small sparks—" "Yes—those the murderer put there—" "The murderer being?" "Inman!" exclaimed Tod. "You must have seen, Steve, how queer he was, how you know—furtive, and that sort of thing. Sly, uncommunicative, until he concludes to say something, then his words came out in a perfect sluice."

"Not much of a psychologist, are you, Tod?" and Trutt smiled at him. "Oh, get out. I know what I know. I know the thing rests between Bunny and Inman. I know—you know, Bunny didn't do it, therefore, and wherefore, it was Inman."

"Going to take me over to the club tonight, Tod?"

And as Toddy agreed, the whole subject was dropped by common consent, and one of Mrs. Prentiss' justly famed dinners was enjoyed with no accompanying talk of horrors.

But after dinner, Cunningham telephoned that they were to come over to Sam Anderson's house instead of to the club, as he had invited a few chums there for billiards, and didn't want to go out.

So over they went, Trutt admiring as they walked briskly along, the bridge, the brook it crossed and the delightful, though different landscape on either side.

Sam Anderson was polite, even cordial, but it was plain to be seen that, as he was expecting guests, he must want them to make their visit brief.

Cunningham was the embarrassed one, for he had brought about this interview with no reason but a hope that it might be helpful to himself, and it was a little difficult to explain.

"I—I wanted you men to meet Mr. Trutt," he began a little lamely, but Tod Buck threw himself into the breach.

"It's all right, Mr. Anderson," he smiled; "we won't stay but a few minutes. I know you've got a party on. But to come down to brass tacks, I'm told that you Park people suspect Miss Moore of the Heath case, and I'm asking you if you have any real, any definite evidence against her. And, if you haven't, if you won't—you, Mr. Anderson, as one of the most influential Park men—if you won't do what you can to squish that rumor—or suspicion, or whatever you call it."

"My dear boy," Sam Anderson smiled at him, "you're barking up the wrong tree! I haven't the slightest suspicion that Miss Moore did or could commit that terrible crime! Why, the mere idea is inconceivable. And I've said so every time I have been where the thing was discussed."

"Good for you, Mr. Anderson!" and Tod wrung his hand. "I suppose not all the Park people think alike, then."

"Whom do you suspect, Mr. Anderson?" Trutt asked, feeling that the time might be short, and he must learn all he could quickly.

"Why, I'm not sure I ought to voice a suspicion, and yet, if it's to help save the name and fame of a fair lady—of a young girl, I suppose I need not hesitate. I am quite willing to put it on record that such evidence as has been rehearsed, in my hearing, leads me to think that the criminal was Mr. Inman. I may be wrong, I can only say he seems to me the most likely suspect, as far as I can see."

"You don't think, then," Trutt went on, "it could have been the injured husband? You don't think Perry Heath did it?"

"How did he make a getaway afterward? I understand the house was locked up like a bank."

Anderson seemed willing to talk, at least, until his guests arrived, so Trutt kept him at it.

"Yes, I hear it was. But why would Mr. Inman kill the woman he loved?"

"Do you remember a line of a famous poem, Mr. Trutt? It runs: 'For each man kills the thing he loves.'"

Not entirely true, of course, but a man might do that from jealousy, or unrequited love. And, too, Mr. Inman is the heir. Oh, I don't know, of course, but he seems to me a far more likely suspect than Heath. I've heard the Heaths were married for several years, and though as a bachelor such things are outside of my line, I don't think the average man is jealous enough to murder his wife after they have lived together as long as that."

"That's so," Trutt agreed, and then Sam Anderson's guests began to arrive and the callers left.

From Tod, from Bunny, from Mrs. Prentiss, and even calling in one or two of the servants, it seemed Steve Trutt would never cease his endless firing of queries.

On all sorts of subjects, seemingly with all sorts of objects, but all more or less connected with the Heaths or with either of the Hunter people. At last, he went off by himself and smoked a cigar in silence and solitude.

He returned, smiling and debonair, and made himself so entertaining and agreeable, that he seemed more a prosaic detective, but a gay and jolly chum of Tod's.

But after Mrs. Prentiss and Bunny had gone to bed, Trutt turned to Tod with a serious face.

"Old man," he said, "that woman was killed by either her husband or her cousin."

"Right, oh, oracle! I'm glad you see it that way."

"Heath, you know, is still in the neighborhood."

"Was just night."

"Is still. And tonight, my laddie, he will visit the house next door."

"Important, if true."

"Yes, that's just it. Maybe he won't. But I think—I strongly believe he will."

"Do you happen to know what he will come for?"

"I do. He will come to get a book out of the—is there a library?"

"No, books are in the studio."

"All right, then. He'll come to get a book out of the studio. Shall we conceal ourselves behind the arras, and nab him when he arrives?"

"I was awake most of last night—"

"Oh, puddinghead! Stay at home, then. I'll go alone, or, better yet, I'll get your Minot, S. D.—Buffaloes whose ancestors ranged the same prairie lands a century and more ago, are being raised on part of the large stock farm of Clarence H. Parker, near this city.

With a rolling pasture of 700 acres, the Parker herd of buffaloes is being permitted to grow until it will tax the capacity of the ranch.

There, however, is only a small part of the immense Parker ranch of 3500 acres. For Parker owns some 250 head of cattle, half of which are highly valued pure-bred Herefords. There are also registered Hereford beef cattle and some pure bred Percheron horses.

The entire ranch is operated solely as a stock-raising venture with only enough crops grown to insure food for the stock. There are 1200 acres under cultivation, more than 100 acres are meadowland, and the rest is open to the stock for grazing.

Large Harvest
Due to the modern irrigation methods, Parker expects to harvest about 2000 tons of hay from the large meadow on the farm. The valley has yielded as high as 2400 tons of hay of the high-class blue grass variety.

Parker is especially interested in the rearing of his buffalo herd. It's a small herd today, but he expects to bring it up to more than 200 head within two years.

Parker has sentimental reasons for raising buffalo on his ranch. Wealthy sportsman and hotel owner of Minot, he recalled the days when these animals roamed the very land he now owns and when they were shot down almost to annihilation by Indians and white hunters.

Forty years ago, Parker's ranch was headquarters for a buffalo bone gathering industry of large proportions, as a result of these ruthless slaughters.

Small Herd Now
Now he wants to bring them back to their own, not only as specimens of American stock, but as valuable terms to keep them from following their roaming instinct. Parker values his ranch at $150,000.

FLOWERS AND FEATHERS
French designers, in an attempt to help the industries hard hit by the recent vogue for plain clothes, are trying to revive feather and flower trimming for hats and gowns.

FEWER BEADS
The scintillating dress of beads is not in evidence for fall, though a few jeweled models are still being shown.

meat animals. He has started with 23 buffaloes, seven of them males. He expects to have 200 in a few years.

Buffalo cows have calves every other year. Several calves will be born on the Parker ranch this year. Cows will not mate the next year after raising a calf. The result will be an overabundance of bull calves, a battle for supremacy among them and the exile of the physically weaker bulls from the herd.

During the summer, the buffalo herd is left out on the ranch with only a wire fence keeping them from wandering in winter, however, they are placed in more substantial quar-

The New Dewey Oil Burner

A New Flame of Greater Efficiency
Completely Installed with 250 gallon tank, Cash or Payments. $297.50

Completely Automatic
Thermostatically Controlled
Economical in Cost and Operation

The fire bowl and adjoining parts are made of chrome-nickel alloy and will withstand the high temperatures indefinitely without oxidizing, warping, cracking or deteriorating.

The motor is of the ball bearing type, easy running and trouble free—will run indefinitely without oiling, though an occasional drop of oil keeps the bearings smooth.

You probably have some 75 watt electric lamps in your home—think what the low current consumption of 60 watts means—its not noticeable on the electric bill.

The oil pump is of the rotary type located in the base and driven by the extended end of the rotor bushing by a "cross" coupler, as the pump operates in oil it never needs oiling.

The pressure gauge is mounted on the side of the base with face upwards and can easily be read without stooping. This gauge tells you the pressure of oil at the atomizing nozzle. When set, after installation, the pressure should remain constant when the burner is in operation.

The atomizing nozzle is of a special "DEWEY" design with a single hole and a ball atomizer. This under pressure atomizes the oil before it enters the combustion chamber in the fire-bowl.

A demonstration will convince you of the superiority of the DEWEY OIL BURNER for domestic applications. May we show you?

DEPENDABLE SERVICE, ENTIRELY AUTOMATIC, WITH LOW FIRST COST AND ECONOMY OF OPERATION MAKES IT YOUR CHOICE AFTER COMPARISON.

WILLIAM FOX presents
THE FAMILY UPSTAIRS
You know these people; they're your neighbors. When the mother runs out of trouble she hunts more. The father is the household foot-ball—he absorbs more kicks than the landlord. The son is about as valuable to his parents as a rail is to an inner tube. The flapper daughter's remarks are as cutting as a new razor. The elder daughter is the target for all the wise cracks.
